

B.A.S.S. CASTING KIDS COMPETITION

SPONSORED BY:

&

WWW.FISHINGFORKIDS.ORG

At Fishing For Kids, we believe that by investing in young people, we are investing in the community as a whole. We are dedicated to the enrichment of our youth through sound, fundamental teaching that transcends all generations. By providing kids the opportunity to learn and grow in an exciting new environment, we will be ensuring their future.

Exodus baits has partnered with Fishing For Kids, Inc. profits from the sell of the products goes to support local outdoor programs for children & youth who can not afford to do so. To find out more please visit www.fishingforkids.org

For the Lincoln County Fair

In the Casting Kids competition, each contestant flips a hookless lure to a target 10 feet away, pitches the bait from 20 feet away, and flips the lure to the target from 20 feet away. Each try is worth points that can add up to a perfect score of 150. The winners is decided by who ever has the most points for there total (flipping, pitching and casting). Former finalist McCollum was the only contestant in the semifinals to score 150 points. Winners will go to the regional in Ky.

Ages are 7-10 and 11-14 Each winner from each age group wins a fishing pole and a medal. Every participant will receive something. (books, poster, Etc.)

WHO: Kids Age 7-10 and 11-14 For B.A.S.S and any age for Fishing For Kids

WHAT: B.A.S.S. Casting Kids and Fishing For Kids Competition

WHEN: Tuesday July 1, 2008 6:30 PM Till 9:00 PM

WHERE: Lincoln Co. Fair Youth Pavilion (Next to Basketball court)

CONTACT INFO: For Fishing Information: Eddie Goode (270)865-3017, Brett Curlis (859)749-2164

For Fair Information: Candice Smith (859)749-5825

WWW.LINCOLNFAIR.NET